I participated in the Bagmati Province Youth Summit, an event organized by the Province Youth Council. The summit brought together young leaders and changemakers to discuss key issues affecting youth in the region. It provided a platform for networking, sharing ideas, and collaborating on solutions to drive positive change in our communities. The event focused on empowering youth and fostering leadership skills to address challenges in areas such as education, employment, and social development.

President in Mock Municipal Assembly

I was elected as the President in the Mock Municipal Assembly held by Bharatpur Metropolitan City. This event simulated the workings of a municipal government, allowing participants to experience the process of governance and decision-making at the local level. As President, I took on the responsibility of leading discussions, representing the assembly, and ensuring the smooth functioning of the sessions. The mock assembly provided an opportunity for young individuals to engage with local political processes and gain practical insights into leadership and governance.

Provincial Mock Youth Parliament 2080, Bagmati Province

I was selected to participate in the Provincial Mock Youth Parliament 2080, organized by the Bagmati Province Youth Council. This event simulated the workings of the provincial legislative process, providing a platform for youth to actively engage in policy discussions and decision-making. As a participant, I had the opportunity to represent the youth of the province, engage with peers, and gain valuable insights into the functioning of the government. The mock parliament aimed to empower young people by enhancing their leadership, communication, and critical thinking skills in the context of provincial governance

Federal mock youth parliament program

I was selected to represent Bagmati Province in the Federal Mock Youth Parliament program. This prestigious event simulates the functioning of the federal parliamentary system, offering youth an opportunity to actively engage in national-level discussions and decision-making. As a participant, I will have the chance to contribute to debates, propose ideas, and collaborate with other young leaders from across the country. The program aims to empower youth by providing a deeper understanding of federal governance, enhancing leadership skills, and promoting civic engagement among the younger generation.
